

Another Wonderful Christmas

Joey + Rory

Well Rory's gonna make himself sick
Eatin' too much pumpkin pie
And we're gonna have to watch my Daddy
Open up yet another boring tie
And Uncle Donny's gonna drink too much
Homemade eggnog
And pass out on the couch snoring
Watchin' football

And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
With family we never get to see
Right there with us
I look forward to this time of year
Fills my heart with yuletide cheer
And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas

And Grandmas's gonna bring another fruitcake
No one will ever eat
And with the cousin's that's another ten young'uns
That are all around our feet
The kids'll be excited to open up
The presents underneath the tree
When they finally get 'em all unwrapped,
"Hey where's the batteries?"

And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
With family we never get to see
Right there with us
I look forward to this time of year
Fills my heart with yuletide cheer
And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas

Sure, it drives me crazy
But I wouldn't change a thing
It's memories we're making
Such a blessing

And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
With family we never get to see
Right there with us
I look forward to this time of year
Fills my heart with yuletide cheer
And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas

I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
And I believe it's gonna be
Another stressful, miserable
Disfunctional... Wonderful Christmas
Wonderful Christmas

And I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
Well I believe it's gonna be...

Yea, I believe it's gonna be
Another wonderful Christmas
