

Day Is Done

Johan

Guess nobody ever told you that
When the day is done
You are on your own
There'll be no one near to care for you
Catch the morning rain on your face again
Then you feel the sun come shining through

And when the day is done and everybody's gone
There's still a ghost inside your head that's haunting
you
And when the day is done, you're not the only one Who's hanging on to something that is lost and gone for good

Every party seems a fantasy
Doesn't mean a lot when it's all you've got Like a movie playing endlessly
Let the morning rain clear your mind again
In your eyes the sun is shining through

And when the day is done and everybody's gone
There's still a ghost inside your head that's haunting
you
And when the day is done, you're not the only one Who's hanging on to something that is lost and gone for
good

What's the matter with you, would you come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let go

Still you haven't found the peace of mind and can you face
The consequence, such a wasted chance
You will know in time, you're days are through

And when your day is done and everybody's gone
There's still a ghost inside your head that's haunting
you
And when your day is done, you're not the only one Who's hanging on to something that is lost and gone for
good

What's the matter with you, would you come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let go
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..

Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let go
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let it go if you wanna feel better
What's the matter with you, come down ..
Let go
