

I Love You Again

John Anderson

I'm the kind of man that never says enough
Sometimes when the thoughts get tinder, girl, words get tough
But every now and then there's a moment like this
When I hold you close, you need to hear how it really is

And a touch won't do it and a kiss can't prove it near enough
And a million flowers don't have the power to say as much
Tries I learned, I'm right back where I've always been
Lookin' for a way to say, I love you again

You're the kind of woman, you'd give your heart and soul
And by all above me, I know you love me 'cause you tell me so
I could by you little things that sparkle and shine
But the thing you need the most don't cost a dime

And when a touch won't do it and a kiss can't prove it near enough
And a million flowers don't have the power to say as much
Tries I might, I'm right back where I've always been
Lookin' for a way to say, I love you again

And when a touch won't do it and a kiss can't prove it near enough
And a million flowers don't have the power to say as much
Tries I might, I'm right back where I've always been
Lookin' for a way to say, I love you again
Always lookin' for a way to say, I love you again
I love you again
