

The Big Revival

John Anderson

Get ready for the big revival
Everybody get in the van
There's a little church on Eagle Mountain
It's called The Blood of the Blessed Lamb
If your faith ain't strong enough, child
You might wind up there
Praise the Lord and pass me a copper head

Reverend Jones he struts and dances
While the guitar plays Amazing Grace
He testifies in tons of fire
With tears of joy running down his face
Now he ain't sure and we ain't sure
Exactly what he says
Praise the Lord and pass me a copper head

Well you won't find many hypocrites
That'll take a chance on gettin' bit
A true believer can't survive
Rattlesnakes and cyanid

Now when you hold that deadly viper
Keep the holy spirit in your mind
Do not lose your concentration
Or that serpent is bound to strike
Either way you won't forget
The first time that you said
Praise the Lord and pass me a copper head
Oh, praise the Lord and pass me a copper head