The Night Before Christmas

John Anderson

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse The stockings were hung by the chimney with care In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there

The children were nestled all snug in their beds While visions of sugar plums danced in their heads And mama in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap Had just settled down for a long winter's nap

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter Away to the window I flew like a flash Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow Gave the luster of mid-day to objects below When what to my wondering eyes should appear But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer

With a little old driver so lively and quick I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick More rapid than eagles his coursers they came And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name

â \in ½Now Dasher, now Dancer, now Prancer, and Vixen On Comet, on Cupid, on Dunder and Blixem To the top of the porch, to the top of the wall Now dash away, dash away, dash away all"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky So up to the house-top the coursers they flew With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too

And then in a twinkling, I heard on the roof The prancing and pawing of each little hoof As I drew in my head and was turning around Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot A bundle of toys, he had flung on his back And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack

His eyes, how they twinkled, his dimples how merry His cheeks were like roses and his nose like a cherry His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow And the beard on his chin was as white as the snow

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath He had a broad face and a little round belly That shook when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf And I laughed when I saw him in spite of myself A wink of his eye and a twist of his head Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work And filled all the stockings and turned with a jerk And laying his finger aside of his nose And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle And away they all flew like the down of a thistle But I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight "Happy Christmas to all, and to all a goodnight"
