

Till I Get Used to the Pain

John Anderson

Some days I have to cry
Some nights I have to drink myself to sleep
'Cause some dreams never die
Like the one I had planned for you and me
Dark clouds just keep on hangin' round
So I just sit and watch the rain
Till your mem'ry goes away
Or I get used to the pain

Someone has got to lose
Somehow I never thought it would be me
This time, girl, it was you
Who left somebody beggin' on his knees
I know you're never comin' back
So I just cry these tears in vain
Till your mem'ry goes away
Or I get used to the pain

Till I can use these teardrops
To drown the hurt inside
Till I can count the heartaches
To fall asleep at night

You can find me lying here
Just whispering your name
Till your mem'ry goes away
Or I get used to the pain

You can find me lying here
Just whispering your name
Till your mem'ry goes away
Or I get used to the pain

Till your mem'ry goes away
Or I get used to the pain
