

Laughing In My Sleep

John Cale

Her heart is broken
She said to me
I didn't believe it
I was lost at sea

The rain has stopped
I wish it well
I hope it continues till I drop

Is it safe now to hear her
When she's sad and alone

I've been there, I've seen it
She showed me where to go

She's not listening, she's not giving up
She's just saying the first thing she hears

I've been there before
I've seen much of it grow
Like the Wizard of Oz

Can I help it, can I help you
Is there room for more than two
