

A Little Of You

John Conlee

A little of you is better than all the rest of the women
Put 'em all together, darlin', you're still the winning
Sure I'd like more of you but I settle for less
Because a little of you is better than all the rest

You are the definition of a woman in my mind
Strong and independent, beautiful and kind
You got a thousand different men competing for your love
I only get a little part of you, but that's all right

Because a little of you is better than all the rest of the women
Put 'em all together, darlin', you're still the winning
Sure I'd like more of you but I settle for less
Because a little of you is better than all the rest

You got the kind of magic that drives men to their knees
You got big ol' boys like me begging pretty please
And even though it kills me to see you with another man
If I can't have you all to myself, I'll have you when I can

Because a little of you is better than all the rest of the women
Put 'em all together, darlin', you're still the winning
Sure I'd like more of you but I settle for less
Because a little of you is better than all the rest

A little of you is better than all the rest of the women
Put 'em all together, darlin', you're still the winning
Sure I'd like more of you but I settle for less
Because a little of you is better than all the rest
