John Conlee

Some people fall in love to fast
Their flame burns hot but it just don't last
And before they know it they want to be free

And they don't care if they leave behind
A lonely heart and a broken mind
Just a sad situation, a bad policy
But baby, with me you've got a lifetime guarantee

A lifetime guarantee there'll be no teardrops
Full coverage to protect you from all harm
I can't promise there won't be some hard times
But you'll always be safe inside my arms
Cause baby, with me you've got a lifetime guarantee

A lifetime guarantee there'll be no teardrops
