

Happy Hours

John De Sohn

I wonder how, I wonder why we're living by this state of rule a t all

I am drawn between polarities but gravity won't take my control

I am running out into the wild without a destination or goal

All I need is clarity but you don't seem to get me at all

Why wait for a happy ending

When all you need is the happy hours

All you need is the happy hours

I'm humming on a melody that's firming loud inside of a song

Don't set a limit, set a goal and learn to walk before you can crawl

I'm running out into the wild without a destination or goal

All I need is clarity but you don't seem to get me at all

Why wait for a happy ending

When all you need is the happy hours

All you need is the happy hours

It's all that we need now

It's all that we need now

All we need is the happy hours
