

Looking Up

John De Sohn

I got this feeling
Feel it every night
Hearts beating
Going black and white
I see you shining
See you going far
Like a diamond
Like a shooting star

Echo, echo
I know it's time for me to
Let go, let go
But I can still hear your
Echo, echo
Every moment, every
Echo, echo, echo

I'm looking up and you look down
Thought you were gone, but you're lost and found
If I could feel you one more time
Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

I'm looking up and you look down
Thought we were gone, but you're lost and found
If I could feel you one more time
Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

(I'm looking up)
(You look)
(I'm looking up)
(One more time)
(I'm looking up)
(You look)

Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

It's human nature
But it's still killing me
Cut like a razor
Guess it was meant to be
You hear me calling
You see me wait around
Just give me something
So won't you come back down

Echo, echo
I know it's time for me to
Let go, let go
But I can still hear your
Echo, echo
Every moment, every
Echo, echo, echo

I'm looking up and you look down
Thought you were gone, but you're lost and found
If I could feel you one more time
Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

I'm looking up and you look down
Thought you were gone, but you're lost and found
If I could feel you one more time
Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

(I'm looking up)
(You look)
(I'm looking up)
(One more time)
(I'm looking up)
(You look)

Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you

I'm looking up and you look down
Thought you were gone, but you're lost and found
If I could feel you one more time
Won't be alone again cuz I'm looking up for you
