

From Trash

John Foxx

From time to time
From life to life
From outside
To the inside
From crash to crash

A heap of cash
A cheap moustache
A single flash
A kind of clash
From the floor
To the door
Just keep an eye
And watch the score

From time to time
Someone will rise
They always come
They always come
From trash

From trash
Trash

They always come, they will always come
Invasion
From Trash
Trash

Cheap perfume, fills the room
Invasion
They always come, always come

Invasion, imitation
No invitation
No sense of occasion

No invitation, no invitation
Invasion, invasion
No sense of occasion

From time to time
Someone will rise
They always come, they will always come, they will always come
From trash

Feet in the gutter
Head in the stars
Hand in the till
A foot in the bar (from trash)
Brass in pocket
A finger in the pie
A foot in the door
A cool, cool eye (trash)
A finger on the pulse
One foot in the grave
A knee in the groin

A hand in the fate (from trash)
A finger on the trigger
An ear to the floor (trash)
A hungry heart
A hand on the door

That attitude
No gratitude
No sense of occasion

From trash
Trash
They always come, they will always come

That attitude
No gratitude
No sense of occasion

From trash
Trash
They always come, they will always come

That attitude
No gratitude
No sense of occasion

From trash
Trash
Trash

That attitude
No gratitude
No sense of occasion

From trash
Trash
From trash

That attitude
No gratitude
They always come, they will always come

That attitude
No gratitude
They always come, they will always come
They always come, they will always come

They always come, they will always come
From Trash
