

Resolution

John Frusciante

We tried lasting a moment three lies open the door we've seen the reflection takes my heart away

We fight in around them you faded all the way if I face it always becomes a hollow ground

I'll be there, I broke it I vision half this time I surround mine with this light tripped away for to find

Eyes disguise it of you dreams fade my hands all the way I believe in you
Do you have to make the hollow empty

I pay some time drowning my tears
I wait for some night when all is found, all is found out

Faking it all in a dare I'll send the way each time Faking as if I care is all I want, all I want there oooooooo, ooooooooo, ooooooo
