

Left With A Broken Heart

John Holt

You were seen runnin' round with him again, oh yeah
But I knew when you said you were through with him, you still care

(ahhh)Oh just as I thought you were mine
(ahhh)He gave you that same golden line
And while you runnin' round,
I'm gonna be left, left with a broken heart

Still I guess this is where you wanna stay, oh yeah
But I much rather have you here with me, oh yeah girl, don't you know?

(ahhh)Oh why didn't you let me know?
(ahhh)Before I let myself go
Coz while you runnin' round

Left.
I knew that he was taking you away
By the way, he was looking at you that day
So I guess I'll have to find another love, oh yeah

No, no, no, no
Darling, darling, darling
Still someday you wanna come back to me
But in someone else's arms I'm gonna be
And while I'm runnin' round you're gonna be left, left with a broken heart

just like you did to me
(left with a broken heart)
you're gonna be standing all alone, all by yourself
(left with a broken heart)
I'm tryin' to tell you girl...
