Strange things happen on a Friday night, girls meet boys , there's a lot of hugging and kissing, under the golden moon that shines a silver light, oh oh I'd like to be one of them, but I'm like a wandering sheep, a wandering sheep on this island, with no one to love me, with no one to kiss me, that's why I say, someone please take my hand and let us go, I keep on thinking I wish that it was me.
