

She's Gone

John Lee Hooker

Last night, you're the only girl I had Whoa last night, you're the only girl I had
Now she's gone, won't be back no more
I wonder will, see your face again
Oh I wonder will; wonder will, see you're face again
Sweet Laurine, sweet Laurine, she's gone away

Now she got me, on a tenant floor
Now she got me, on a tenant floor
Now she's gone away left me, gone away to live

She's gone, won't be back no more
Oh she's gone, won't be back no more
Now she's gone and left, left me here to cry
Now she's gone, gone away to live
Now she's gone, gone away to live
I believe, I believe, she's found a brand new pad

I'm gonna cry I know it won't help me know
Wastin' my tears on you
I know its goin to do no good
I no cry, I no cry, sure is not gonna bring you back
Hey Bill, you're lookin good again tonight
Hey, hey, you're lookin good again tonight
But you gone and left me, gone away to live
