

Always Come Back

John Legend

I may go to all those unfamiliar places
Stranger towns with stranger faces
Way out there
It's okay, my dear
I may ride the planes and trains and distant highways
But I know I'll be finding my way home
Though I'm gone, just know
It's not for long

And no matter where I might roam

I'll always come back to
Always come back to
Always come back to you

I'll be just a call away when I'm not with you
When you're down, then love will lift you up
My love
Our love's enough
Each and every star we wish on is the same
No matter where we are on Earth, won't change
When I can
I'll be back there again

And no matter where I've been

I'll always come back to
Always come back to
Always come back to you

Like the dawn always brings us the sun
Like the moon comes when the day is done
Oh, it's true
I will always come home to you
Like the rainbow that follows the rain
Rainbow that follows the rain
The joy's comin' right after the pain
Well, I'm sayin'
I'll be back home again
Again, oh
I'll be back home again
Again, oh

Oh, I'll always come back to
Always come back to
Always come back to you
