

Honey

John Legend

Honey, honey

Honey
Honey makes the world go 'round
The world go 'round
Ain't it lovely
The way it feel when I go down?
When I go down

A million of kingdoms would fall
So many crowns would be lost
All for a taste, I would pay any cost

You're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than honey
(Worth more than) Money
(Easy like) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
You're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than honey
(Worth more than) Money
(Easy like) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
(Sweeter than)

Don't you love that golden glisten
When you put your finger in this
Orange blossom honeycomb?
It's waitin' for you when you get home
Oh, you never wanna leave (Leave)
Got you addicted to me, yeah (Uh)
Baby, don't stop 'til my legs lock
When it drip, baby, don't waste a drop, oh

Show me the ways to explore (To explore)
Every day wantin' more (Wantin' more)
All for the chase, for a taste I can't ignore (You're so sweet, ain't nothin'
' sweeter than)

You're sweeter than honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
You're sweeter than honey
(Worth all the) Money (Honey, sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
(Easy like) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
You're sweeter than honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
You're sweeter than honey
(Worth all the) Money (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
(Easy like) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
(Sweeter than)

(Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down) Oh, ho
Oh, baby
(Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down) Yeah
You're sweeter than honey (Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down)
You're sweeter (Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down)
Baby
