

Nothing Stands Between Us

John Mark McMillan

River of gladness, fill my soul
Jesus, You're my greatest thought
God, I know

I see the light
I see the lightning
I hear Your voice
Inside the cracking thunder
Singing...

Nothing stands between us, oh
Nothing stands between us but love now
Nothing stands between us, oh
Nothing stands between us but love

River of gladness, take control
There's a cup of joy for every taste of sorrow

I see the light
I see the lightning
I hear Your voice
Inside the cracking thunder
Singing...

Nothing stands between us, oh
Nothing stands between us but love now
Nothing stands between us, oh
Nothing stands between us but love now
Nothing stands between us, oh
Nothing stands between us but love

Have I tried to scale Your walls in vain?
To cross Your seas, I pushed against Your waist
What for all the miles have You to say?
Were You there beside me this whole way?

You always find me
In between the thunder and the lightning
You always find me
In between the thunder and the lightning
You always find me
In between the thunder and the lightning
You always find me
In between the thunder and the lightning

You always find me
In between the thunder and the lightning
