John Mayall

Fatal beauty of the chokin' kind
Dangerous feeling in this heart of mine
How can you love me and treat me so unkind
Oh, you got me floppin' like a fish in a pan
That ain't no way to treat your man

Maydell

Baby, won't you please love me
Oh Maydell, sure put the squeeze on me
I don't know why I love you, you put me through hell
But I can't break your spell, Maydell

Fire spreads quick through the neighborhood
Talk is cheap when the story's good
Nobody said you did, but everybody said you would
Oh, you got me feelin' like a dog, chasin' his tail
I know I'll never catch you - you play the game too well

Maydell

Baby, won't you please love me
Oh Maydell, you sure put the squeeze on me
I don't know why I love you, you put me through hell
But I can't break your spell, Maydell

Every time I try to walk away, just walk away
You bat them eyes and beg me to stay, "Honey won't you stay?"
Ruby red lips, callin' my name
Forget about the sorrow and the pain

Maydell

Baby, won't you please love me
Oh Maydell, sure put the squeeze on me
Well, I don't know why I love you, you put me through hell
I can't break your spell

Maydell

Baby, won't you please love me
Oh Maydell, you sure put the squeeze on me
You know, I don't know why I love you, you put me through hell
But I can't break your spell

Maydell

Baby, won't you please love me
Oh Maydell, you sure put the squeeze on me
I don't know why I love you, you put me through hell
But I can't break your spell
Can't break your spell
Can't break your spell, Maydell
