

Please Be You

John Mayer

If you wrote right now
"I wonder why it wasn't meant to be"
I'd probably take the blame
And say it's me
If you wrote right now

If you wrote right now
I would talk to you in measured tones
Give you love and leave the past alone
If you wrote right now

Please be you
Please be you
Come on, please be you

If you wrote right now
I'd stop and hold the moment dear
I'd let you know your home is always here
If you wrote right now

If you wrote right now
I'd mouth the words "I miss you all the time"
And I'd go with you before you change your mind
If you wrote right now

Please be you
Please be you
Come on, please be you

If you wrote right now
I'd realize my luck ain't all that bad
It'd be the best goodnight I ever had
If you wrote right now

Please be you
Please be you
Come on, please be you
Please be you
Come on, please be you
Oh, please be you
Come on, please be you
Come on, please be you
Come on, please be you
