

Whole Again

John Mayer

Dont want to be so angry dont want to keep so quiet now its open fire and i cant move dont want to be so careful dont care enough to mind dont know leave me with no head room to climb back down im just waiting for a land slid made up my mine to make me whole again take up your time when im alone dont want to be so anxious dont care to stand in line i like bein in an open fire as you watch me burn down and wait along the waste side made up my mind to make me whole again take up your time when im alone

Dont want to let you down dont care to bring this up again in my defense it doesnt make since why you even come around then over and over you lay around and watch me go back down before my storm
take up your time (I Ammmmmmmmmmmmm) to make me whole again
