

Wild Blue

John Mayer

Never seen the sun before
Lying on the ocean floor
I'm walking through the wilderness
And living off the loneliness

Oh wild blue, deeper than I ever knew
Wild blue on a bed of grey
Oh baby, what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

(Yeah, yeah, girl)

All the tears I meant to cry
Dance across the evening sky
And in my sorrow I can see
That missing you belongs to me

Oh wild blue, deeper than I ever knew
Wild blue on a bed of grey
Oh baby, what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

Wild blue, deeper than I ever knew
It's a wild blue since you went away
Oh baby, what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

And you'll never know
The unlikely beauty in letting you go
