

Forever

John Michael Montgomery

Guess I'm just a little bit scared
I guess I'm not as strong as I thought
When I see you lying there
I worry about losing you
I used to think of only me
But that was long ago
Now I find it hard to conceive
Life without you

Baby I don't want to be the one
To face this life all alone
At the end of the day
When the sun goes down
I want you right here in my arms...
Forever
Every little smile
Every move you make
It's like a dagger to my heart
Took my breath away
All I ask is that you be mine...
Forever...
Forever...

Think about what you're doing here
If you're anything less than sincere
Tell me now
And let yourself out the door
No harm no foul
Kill me now, save me all the pain
But if you feel the way I do
Stay
Let me make love to you

Baby I don't want to be the one
To face this life all alone
At the end of the day
When the sun goes down
I want you right here in my arms...
Forever
Every little smile
Every move you make
It's like a dagger to my heart
Took my breath away
All I ask is that you be mine...
Forever...
Forever...

Forever...

Baby I don't want to be the one
To face this life all alone
At the end of the day
When the sun goes down
I want you right here in my arms...
Forever
Every little smile
Every move you make

It's like a dagger to my heart
Took my breath away
All I ask is that you be mine...
Forever...
Forever...

Forever...forever... forever

Guess I'm just a little bit scared
I guess I'm not as strong as I thought
When I see you lying there
I worry about losing you
