

One Minute Every Hour

John Miles

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine.

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine.

When I call you, you know you're never at home.
You're never around when someone answers the phone.
Do you really care about the way that I feel?
You've got my feelings so uncertain
To the pain I'm going through.
If you'd only look in my direction
Then I could show my love for you.
Oh won't you give me

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine.

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine.

Now I'll see your face in every crowd in the street,
And I ask your name from every person I meet.
There's going to be a while you ain't around any more,
And I just say I've got no answer
To the pain I'm going through,
Know that I could solve my problems
If only I could be with you.
If for just one moment
You decide to change your mind.
You know that I'd coming running to you
Any old time, any old time.

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine,
Won't you listen to me, now

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine.
Won't you listen to me, now all I'm asking is

One minute every hour is all I need,
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine,
I want to make you mine

One minute every hour is all I need,
(Just one minute every hour)
Two minutes every day is all I want
To give you all the love that makes you mine
