

No Time

John Moreland

Covered up in rain
Far from where we came
From where our troubles were tomorrow
Praying for some grace
A song you couldn't place
Tonight, your melody is ringing hollow

Looking for a clue
To tell you what to do
Looking for the pages to be turning
Look and you shall find
A time bomb in your mind
And child, it's gonna set your world a-burning

But I don't have the time
I don't have the time to cry

Now it's all a blur
They told you who you were
And you had not the words to argue
You drew a heavy line
A knot you can't unwind
Now when the morning comes, who are you?

I don't have the time
I don't have the time to cry

The future's coming fast
Neck-deep in the past
Don't miss the moments while they're passing
The clock will surely call
Empires all will fall
My love for you is everlasting
