

One More Sunset

John Morgan

The color's almost gone
The stars are coming out
I love the high I'm on
Next to you right now
I wanna bring you right back here
And drop a tailgate down
When the world turns back around

For one more sunset paintin' that sky
One more want me look in your eyes
Girl, it's anyone's guess how many we got left
I just wanna tell you in case you never knew
If I had one more sunset
I'd spend it with you

The bottle's almost empty
The red's burned into black
And I'm hoping that tomorrow
Baby, we'll be back
Yeah, we'll be back for

One more sunset paintin' that sky
One more want me look in your eyes
Girl, it's anyone's guess how many we got left
I just wanna tell you in case you never knew
If I had one more sunset
I'd spend it with you

Yeah, I wanna bring you right back here
And drop a tailgate down
When the world turns back around

For one more sunset paintin' that sky
One more want me look in your eyes
Girl, it's anyone's guess how many we got left
I just wanna tell you in case you never knew
If I had one more sunset
One more sunset
Well, I'd spend it with you

Oh, yeah, I'd spend it with you
One more sunset
I'd spend it with you
One more sunset
