

Daydreamer

John Park

Calm and unafraid
On a mountaintop
Take a leap of faith
Vanish into the clouds

Sailing through the wind
Neon sky above
Desert made of gold
Another mystery unfolds

Daydreamer
Are you seeing what I'm seeing
Hey daydreamer
Paint your world just how you want it

A simple summer home
By the countryside
Two people growing old Side by side

I'm your humble saint
You'll be my prayer
Gently break my heart
God it feels good to cry

Daydreamer
Are you seeing what I'm seeing
Hey daydreamer
Paint your world just how you want it

Daydreamer
Are you seeing what I'm seeing
Hey daydreamer
Paint your world just how you want it
