

Higher

John Park

Open up my eyes
In a world of lies
Spoken tenderly
Shed a light and let
The noises in my head
To escape from me

Charm me into thinking
That I'm doing just fine
Lover and a friend
Bullet and a cure
You're a blinding light
So beautiful

Burning up in flames
What remains is only pain
But you have me keep on Coming back for more

Oh, you get me higher than love
A taste and I can't get enough
You get me higher
Higher than love

Still and all alone
In quiet for so long
(Is there anyone out there?)
It's unbelievable
That I'd ever find
Something more
Undeniable
I can't help it you are my
Alpha and omega
Beginning and the end
It's so good it hurts
Again and again

Burning up in flames
What remains is only pain
But you make it look
So good to feel alive

Oh, you get me higher than love
A taste and I can't get enough
You get me higher
Higher (give me more of you)
Oh, you get me higher than love
A taste and I can't get enough
You get me higher

Higher than stars
(Take me away from this place)
Higher than suns
(Over the clouds through the sky)
Higher than kings
(On the other side)
Higher than Gods

Lover and a friend
Bullet and a cure
Am I flying high?
Or lying on the floor?
Give me more of (you)

Oh, you get me higher than love
A taste and I can't get enough
You get me higher
Higher and higher
Oh, you get me higher than love
A taste and I can't get enough
(I need you now)
You get me higher
Higher than love
