Revenge

John Parr

Did you say it for effect, or was it true, don't tell me, I can guess I've sailed your seas of lies, but floundered on the rocks, I'm drowning

I was walking on the wire, one look at you and it could light m y fire
Burning up in your desire, there's just one thing pulling me th rough

Revenge, I thought you'd be here forever, sharing a future that
's gone
I know it's over, but still the fight goes on Revenge, one for the lost and the lonely, ending each day with if only
You left me cold, I'm the victim now you've gone

Revenge, I need revenge

Did you see the way she looked, the way she smiled, I've seen i t all before
I could write a book, I'd like to kiss and tell, or shout it

I was walking on the wire, one look at you and it could light m y fire
Burning up in your desire, there's just one thing pulling me th

Revenge, I thought you'd be here forever, sharing a future that
's gone
I know it's over, but still the fight goes on Revenge, one for the lost and the lonely, ending each day with
if only
You left me cold, I'm the victim now you've gone

Revenge, I need revenge, I'm taking revenge, I need revenge

I've got to find a new direction, I'm searching for the right c onnection
You're clawing me back, but I'm working on a new attack

Revenge, I thought you'd be here forever, sharing a future that
's gone
I know it's over, but still the fight goes on Revenge, one for the lost and the lonely, ending each day with
if only
You left me cold, I'm the victim now you've gone

Revenge, I thought you'd never deceive me, you and you fooled all along I just want more than the victory that you've won Revenge, one for the lost and the lonely
