

World Keep Turnin'

John Parr

Think you got a make on me
Sussed me out based on what you see
Hey baby I got news for you
I'm a right hand man with a left hand screw

And nobody, nobody, nobody gives a damn

One last chance is all I need
A girl like you gonna set me free
I'm a lost cause emotionally
Lost my heart at wounded knee

And nobody, nobody, nobody understands
Yeah nobody, nobody, nobody gives a damn

And the world keeps turnin'
And the lies keep hurtin'
And the fire keeps on burnin'
And we're just feedin' the flames

I learned my lesson
Learned it well
She burned me up and it hurt like hell

The more I learn the less I know
Her eyes said yes but her mouth said no

And nobody, nobody, nobody understands
Yeah nobody, nobody, nobody gives a damn

And the world keeps turnin'
And the lies keep hurtin'
And the fire keeps on burnin'
And we're just feedin' the flames

And nobody knows, nobody cares
Walk a mile in the shoes
The devil in you is runnin' scared

And the world's gone crazy
And there's nothin' can save me
And it's simply amazin'
Ain't one damn thing gonna change

And the world keeps on turnin'
