Shop Talk

I seen you in your pajamas Drinking coffee at the House of Pies You was flipping for the check And talking like your tongue was paralyzed You were saying something That I don't understand Bout looking other places While you're holding my hand Let's stop Let's not Talk shop In front of all these guys Let's not Talk shop Shop talk

Shop talk is talking something That you don't realize

Loose lips sink ships, shake hips Bad tips draw spies I want you when I can get you But you only want me on the rise Well I thought I had your number But your number's too loud Now you're standing on the table And we're drawing a crowd Let's stop Let's not Talk shop In front of all these spies John Prine
