

Runaway Fool Of Love

John Stewart

California boy
Learning how to live on the road
Found me a woman
That got down to my soul

And I never knew what I had 'til I lost you
I swear to the stars above
Then you can call me
The runaway fool of love

I treated you bad
I was walking with my head in the clouds
Now I'm feeling so lonely
Living my life in a crowd

Oh, I never knew what I had 'til I lost you
I swear to the stars above
And you can call me
The runaway fool of love

Then you can move me and you can hold me
And roll me like a glove
Or you can call me
The runaway fool of love
Can't you, babe?

Oh, I never knew what I had 'til I lost you
I swear to the stars above
And you can call me
The runaway fool of love

Then you can move me and you can hold me
And roll me like a glove
Or you can call me
The runaway fool
You can call me
The runaway fool
You can call me
The runaway fool of love
