Oblivion

John Vanderslice

I took a blow to the head mechanical pencil filled with lead I took a shot it's all she got I took a knock it's everything she got forgive me I'm ready to live until then I'm defending again it's how I owned oblivion forget me not or i'll never stop

never stop
never ever stop

It's four p.m. bad shit is closing in put the stereo on boost the top end can't write a song strap the capo on can't close the deal play Defender until dawn

forgive me I'm ready to live
until then I'm defending again
