

Dragon's Eye

John West

Awaken the city and warn all the people
Something is coming to call
Candlelit pages from desolate ages
Bracing ourselves for the fall

Oh cut like the knife, run for your life
Wish you godspeed
Oh behind the mask, take you to task
A friend indeed

Ancient voices on the wind

Faith is your sword, trust is your shield
Through the Dragon's Eye
Wounds never heal, sunlight on steel
Through the Dragon's Eye

Must not go to sleep
Resisting with back to wall
Civilized nation you fuel the creation
Facing the blame one and all

Oh crack in the sky, ending is night
Pray for your name
Oh breath will combust, turn you to dust
Winged serpentine

Ancient legend on the wind

Faith is your sword, trust is your shield
Through the Dragon's Eye
Wounds never heal, sunlight on steel
Through the Dragon's Eye

Faith is your sword, trust is your shield
Through the Dragon's Eye
Wounds never heal, sunlight on steel
Through the Dragon's Eye
