I Ain't Particular

Johnnie Taylor

Color me green 'cause that's what they call me
Just because I'm lovin' you
But they could color me blue if I had to
Live one day without you

Girl, I'm a fool for you
And they say that I'm green and dumb
I got a-you, and you got me
And talk ain't gon' hurt no one, uh

I ain't particular, what I'll do for you
I ain't particular, no

Now you could send me to the jungle
To wrestle with a tiger
I'd bring you the world's best skin
Then if you tell me, I'll turn right around
Go back in a lion's den, uh

'Cause girl, I ain't afraid
I wanna hold on to you
And just like the wise man said
"Ninety-Nine and a half won't do"
'Cause see

I ain't particular, what I'll do for you

I ain't particular, no, no

Oh, I'll be your breadwinner
Your big time money spender
I'll be your insurance man
If I know I got your love in my hands

They can color me green 'cause that's what they call me
All because I'm lovin' you
But they could color me blue if I had to
Live one day without you

Girl, I'm a fool for you
And they say that I'm green and dumb
I got you (I got you)
And you got me (And you got me)
And talk don't hurt me none
Like as they say

I ain't particular, what I'll do for you
I love it (I ain't particular)
And I want you girl

I'll go where you want me to go
I ain't particular, where I'll go for you
No, I love you
No, I love you
