

It All Depends On Linda

Johnny Burnette

I'd buy the world if my Linda wants to be a rich man's wife
& I'd farm 40 acres if she wants that simple life
I would be a beggar, or I would be a king
Oh it all depends on Linda, my sweet little Linda
Yes it all depends on Linda 'cause she's my everything

Her every wish is always my command
If you love her like I do you'd understand
How she controls my future, my hopes, my every plan
Oh it all depends on Linda, my sweet little Linda

Yes it all depends on Linda; my fate is in her hands
I love my sweet little Linda; my fate is in her hands

Yes she controls my future, my hopes, my every plan
Oh it all depends on Linda, my sweet little Linda
Yes it all depends on Linda; my fate is in her hands
I love my sweet little Linda; my fate is in her hands
