

Lonesome Tears In My Eyes

Johnny Burnette

Baby-baby-baby blues an' sorrows
And a love for tomorrows seems to suit you just fine
And a love for tomorrows seems to suit you just fine
Can't forget that you told me so many promises, lies
I'm gonna try to forget these lonesome tears in my eyes

You've broken my heart, gonna do it again
Can't get rid of the spell you got me in
Can't forget that you told me so many promises, lies
I'm gonna try to forget these lonesome tears in my eyes
