

Lookin' Back In Anger

Johnny Cash

A cold bitter mist covers your eyes torment is raging in you But you can't change the smallest part of all the wrong you've done Lookin' Back In Anger like you do

I'm not preachin' I'm just talkin'
but I believe in what I say That look of anger that you keep flashin'
won't accomplish you anything today
Reach out your hand someone will take it
Someone took mine then I saw a different view
I saw it'd take take a lot more lovin'
And a lot less Lookin' Back In Anger like you do

You're still a victim of the pornographic past

The smutty face of evil showing through But you can't take away the scars that you put on that face
Lookin' Back In Anger like you do

Now I ain't preachin' I'm just talkin'
but I believe in what I say
That look of anger that you keep flashin'
won't accomplish you anything today
Reach out your hand someone will take it
Someone took mine then I saw a different view
I saw it'd take take a lot more lovin'
And a lot less Lookin' Back In Anger like you do
