

Something Better

Johnny Drille

I'll fail you
Don't give your heart to me, I'm no good
You're pure and simple but I'm full of shit
I love me single, only fools commit, yea

And you're one of a kind
So many people wish you were the girl in their lives
I'll be crazy not to be queuing in line, yea
But just before you decide I need to tell you

I'm that is there something better guy
I'm never Mr Right
Olakunle might be your type
I'm that is there something better guy

I feel you
You see much deeper than my issues
Got me believing that I can trust again
I guess that's the first step to find true love again, yea

And you're one of a kind
So many people wish you were the girl in their lives
I'll be crazy not to be queuing in line, yea
But just before you decide I need to tell you

I'm that is there something better guy
I'm never Mr Right
Olakunle might be your type
I'm that is there something better guy

But I need your love
I need your love
Oh I need your love
(Deep down I know that girl I need your love)
I need your love
Oh I need your love
I need your love

Are you not scared, I might
Not be worth the fight
All the times I didn't believe
But girl, you made me see

That I need your love
I need your love
Oh I need your love
(You got me running running running back to your love, oh yea)
Need your love
Oh girl, I need your love
(And I fit be your guy)

Oh girl, I need your love
Oh I need your love
You got me running running running back to your love

You're not scared, I might

God will punish those who lie
Cos girl, you make me see
I'm that something better guy
