Somewhere

Johnny Marr

I was living in my own world
Running from the get-go
See the destination
Looking for a free ride
Mixing up illusion
Making up my own mind
Super stupefaction
Dreaming up a good time

Just like I was someone
Just like everyone

Living for a moment
Try not to see the headlines
Too much information
Something doesn't feel right
Hiding out in plain sight
Thinking up the know-how
Getting in the picture
Living in the abstract now

On and on
Now or never
The game for everyone
Round and round
We go together
This way for everyone
A game for me
And I just knew

Somewhere
These dreams wait
'Cause something's coming
Do you feel it?
Someday
Don't need to wait
'Cause something's coming
Believe it

Living in my own world
Running from the get go
Mixing up illusion
Dreaming up my own good time
Living for a moment
Hiding out in plain sight
Some stupid new attraction
Mixing up the abstract now

Somewhere
Dreams wait
Somewhere
Someday
Those dreams wait
'Cause something's coming
Believe it

This way for everyone
