

Love Without Words

Johnny Mathis

Seems like we talk and we talk,
No end to our conversation
Always have so much to say,
Sometimes without motivation
When we're alone like this,
sharing a lovers' kiss
Words always seem to miss,
Who needs words.
Each sigh becomes a song,
we're both where we belong
Whatever feels so right just can't be wrong
Love without words, only shadows on the ceiling
Love without words, letting love say what we're feeling.
When you reach the point of no return,
and yearn for what's ahead,
Any words that you can say are better left unsaid.
We're just surrounded by words, TV and radios blaring
People who talk night and day, talking without really caring.
Quietly we awake, hearing each word we take Knowing that no one can hear the silence that we make
Love without words, Only shadows on the ceiling
Love without words, letting love say what we're feeling
Love without words, only shadows on the ceiling.
Love without words...
