

Take Me

Johnny Mathis

Take me
Forget your love
And take me

Make me
Make me your love
Make me

You tell me
You love someone else
But it don't feel good
Why should it make me jealous
(say I'm jealous)
'cause I'm getting so close to you
And I know
That it's not mutual
Don't think that I'm
So oblivious to pain
'cause I maintain
A rock and a shell
But it don't relate
Some day I'll break
Because there's no debating
That sometimes
I don't wear it well

(so)

(the love)
The love I feel for you
Suddenly has changed me
(your love changed me)
Things you say and do
Changed my point of view
Is it so hard to understand
(to understand)
That our friendship
Made me twice the man
(twice the man)
And twice the companion
And double up the sadness
That I feel within

(so)

The love I feel for you
Has changed me
Love changed me
The love I feel for you
Changed my point of view
