

Temptation

Johnny Mathis

I feel a pain in my heart
Each time I go away
When I see the fear in your eyes
Is this time he gone to stay?

You know I've been weak
And it didn't take much
Maybe some night, some strangers touch
Will lead me astray

In a world of temptation
There are so many ways to go wrong
But I'll hold your faith in my heart
And I will be strong
Oh, baby, I will be strong

Somehow I get through the day
I do what I have to do
But lying alone late at night
Oh, how I long for you
You're not asleep and neither am I
But if I call you, you'll break down and cry
You know it's true

In a world of temptation
There are so many ways to go wrong
But I hold your faith in my heart
And I will be strong
Baby, I will be strong

We both can't be weak
But we just can't give in
We've got to hold on,
Till I'm back home again
We've got to hold on, baby

In a world of temptation
There are so many ways to go wrong
But I hold your faith in my heart
And I will be strong
