

Walking Tall

Johnny Mathis

The world's begun to look her age
I'll tell you why she lined and gray
We read her fate on every page
Then turn our backs and walk away

Why can't we stand, join hand to hand
It's time to care, we dare not wait
And watch too long become too late

There's so much hatred all around
Let's end it now or it will roam
There's lots of heroes in the ground
But not enough are in the home

Let's start again. Don't say amen
Open your eyes and lift your head
Just help to right the wrongs we've bred

Let us pray loudly
Let us live proudly
And soon we'll all
Be walking tall
