

Missing You

Johnny Orlando

What's good with you, girl?
What have you been up to lately?
Saw you with another guy
I'm just observing, no hating
Tell me, does he treat you right,
Or are you faking that you're in love again or is this just pretend?

Just come on, girl
Just be honest with yourself
Have some fun, girl,
'Cause you don't need nobody else
Just come on, girl,
Just give me another chance
Have some fun, girl
I was meant to be your man

I never stop missing you
Baby, you should know
I wish I was kissing you
Now reminiscing through my phone
And all day long you got me daydreaming
'Cause I never stop missing you
But I feel like I'm losing you

I just don't see it. No, I don't blame
Why you keep trusting these liars?
Let me just take you out on a date
Maybe we'll rekindle the fire

Girl, I know what you like
We have been over this
Just give me one more dance,
Then I will call it quits

Just come on, girl
'Cause I just wanna dance with you
Have some fun, girl
Oh, it's about to happen, girl, just let it happen

I never stop missing you
Baby, you should know
I wish I was kissing you
Now reminiscing through my phone
And all day long you got me daydreaming
'Cause I never stop missing you
But I feel like I'm losing you

You, you just been all in my mind, in my mind
Send you to prison, girl, you doing time in my head
I lie awake in the bed
Tryna count sheep but I see you instead

Can't get away from you
Nothing to say to you
I wasn't loving ya
This was a game to you
Your loss, I got me a new girl and money to floss

Baby, no coming back
Do what you do, girl,
I know what you thinking
But here is the truth, truth, truth, truth
Hey there, girl
Nah, I ain't missing you!

I never stop missing you
Baby, you should know
I wish I was kissing you
Now reminiscing through my phone
And all day long you got me daydreaming
'Cause I never stop missing you
But I feel like I'm losing you

I never stop missing you
Baby, you should know
I wish I was kissing you
Now reminiscing through my phone
And all day long you got me daydreaming
'Cause I never stop missing you
But I feel like I'm losing you
