

Why

Johnny Orlando

Tell you I don't want you when all I really wanna do, is tell y ou that I miss you
It's easy to approach you, you never make it hard to do But honestly, I'm scared of the truth that I'm not for the like s of you

I push you away, but I want you to stay, got no excuse Circling around the lies 'cause I can't tell it straight, so he re's the truth

I don't know why, why, why
I'm so afraid to try, try, try
You're everything that perfect defines
I don't know why, why, why
I'm so afraid to try

Every time you save me, I wait for you to come break me
And wake me from this daydream (ooh...)
But I don't want to lose you, ooh, I'd be a fool to 'Cause honestly there is no nobody else that compares to the li kes of you

I push you away, but I want you to stay, got no excuse Circling around the lies 'cause I can't tell it straight, so he re's the truth

I don't know why, why, why
I'm so afraid to try, try, try
You're everything that perfect defines
I'm so afraid to try
