

I'm Not Looking Back Anymore

Johnny Paycheck

Oh the years we shared together are so great in memory
I don't think I'll ever live long enough to be free
For the pleasures of our love was over shadowed by the pain
So we'll say goodbye forever I can't walk that road again

No I'm not looking back anymore our love was sweet
But time has slowly closed the door
Now there's thorns where the flowers once grew
This is the end for me and you
And I'm not looking back anymore

When you know you've done the best you can that's all that you can do
And I know I did the best I could to get along with you
And if I'd known of something else I would have tried that too
But I see my mistake one can't love enough for two

No and I'm not looking back anymore
If I must live alone I've lived alone before
If life is lonely let it be
I've still got what's left of me
And I'm not looking back anymore

It's hard to make a new start when the world has made you old
And the years have made you bitter and heartaches turn you cold
And you keep on turning backwards to the moments that have fled
A man can't keep on living with that cloud over his head

So I'm not looking back anymore
I'll throw away the cloths the old times wore
Tomorrow is another day
Perhaps true love will come my way

And I'm not looking back anymore

No I'm not looking back anymore
