

Kissing Yesterday Goodbye

Johnny Paycheck

Now look here ma'm Marie let's get something straight
She's gone and there's no need for us to cry
We can sit here on this stool kiss her picture and act like fools
When we should be kissing yesterday goodbye

You know we should go home lay us down and get some rest
If we could sleep you know how time would fly
Ma'm Marie I don't know why you keep holdin' on the way you do
We should be kissing yesterday goodbye

Yes we should kiss yesterday goodbye and all the heartaches too
'Cause we both know there wasn't one time that she tried
We waste our time kissin' pictures and holdin' pillows every night
We should be kissing yesterday goodbye
Yes we should be kissing yesterday goodbye
