Johnny Rain

11:30 and I'll be on the way
Just us and the city mama
You know that I'm ready and willing
I'll bite the bullet, fuck what they gotta say
Shoot me that text and baby you know the play
After dark party, all the lights out
Rooftop on a summer night, yeah
If she don't got it you know what I'm bout
If anybody got it then girl it's us right now

Pour another cup right now
If you're getting money throw it up right now
Don't you know the squad blowing up right now
If them boys hatin' tell em all pipe down
Yeah
Psychedelics had the boy all psyched out
Anywhere you want, we'll go off right now
Yeah

Beautiful with no makeup
Your face looks like patience
Like angels could save us
Nah nah (nah nah)
And I know it's your nature
So I pray love is faithful
It ain't nothing, when your my way
(Just pull up)

I'll be downtown waitin' for you
Downtown waitin' for you
Yeah
I'll be downtown waitin' for you
Downtown waitin' for you
Uh huh, uh huh

Stuck in nirvana but I gotta give it some more time
Dolce Gabana huggin' mama like body lotion
I wanna find your body laying out by the ocean
She wanna ride now, right here with me
2 hour drive, wouldn't mind you a little closer
Soaking the high, hoping the feeling never goes
If anybody got it then girl it's us right

Pour another cup right now
If you're getting money, throw it up right now
It's a real "I don't give a fuck" lifestyle
If he plays foul, it's a must lights out
Shit was all love, but it's all bad now
She don't want love, but she want that sound
Hit it all off, when you offed that gown
Yeah

Just being real
Shake your lil pearl, we could lay low
Get a lil gone and you feel real
Get a lil down but we heal still
Aye

RKO, got a lil turnt
Still 10 toes down, never fold
Niggas didn't know
Saw it ya face but you didn't know

I'll be downtown waitin' for you
Downtown waitin' for you
Yeah
I'll be downtown waitin' for you
Downtown waitin' for you

Coachella vibes
Fuckin' with the odds girl, no better odds
All notions dive off the boat for a diamond
I hope I know where to find it
I would say forever but it feels so timeless
Sunset in your eyes
You're ahead of your time
And what they don't understand, they could never divide
Forever ties
Jot me down for whatever's in mind
You put heaven in mine
Nothing regular
I saw niggas plotting so they could never see my demise
Stay at peace with your lies
Mama always dying to keep the peace,
Agree and I keep the peace when I ride
I ain't Jesus when I slide like a thief in the night
Head heated, my hearts cold, I see no light
Once my temperature spikes, every head has a price
Once lines get crossed, ain't no setting aside
If you ever decide

(I'll be downtown waiting for you)
